The name "Peter" comes from the Greek word "petrus," meaning rock.

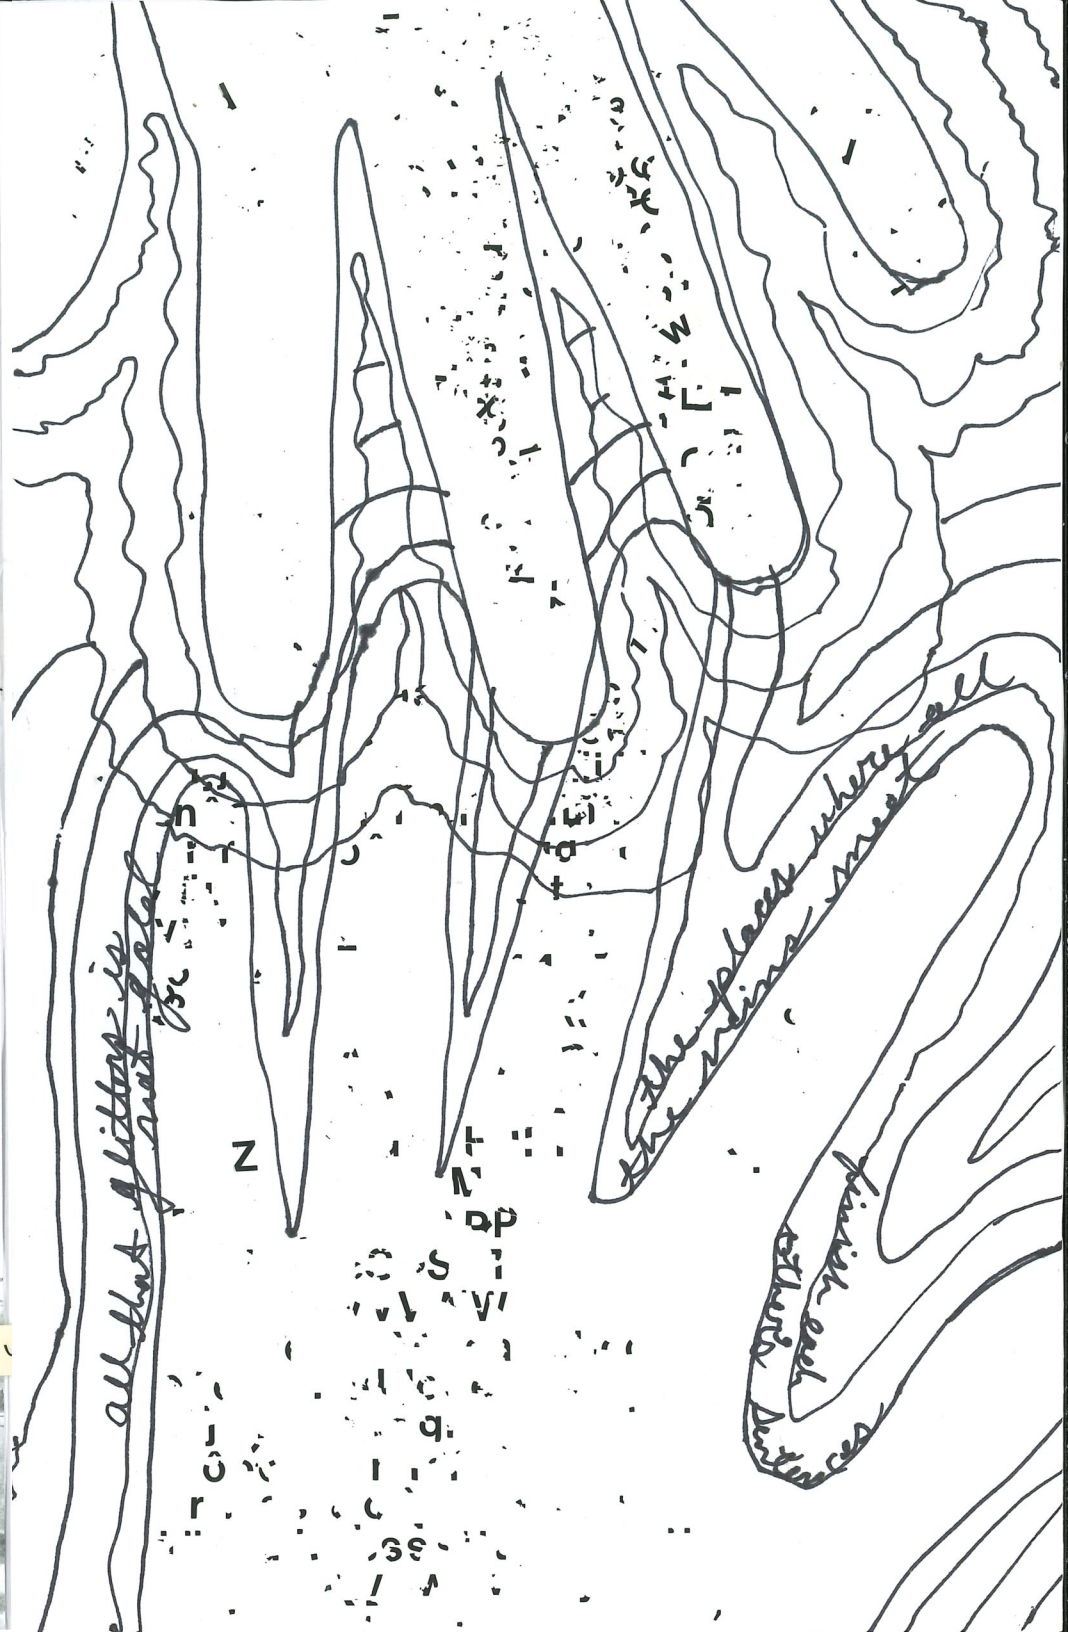

The biblical figure Peter lived up to his name by being a reliable Foundation for his community, supporting, protecting, and helping them. I think it's incredibly admirable.

As a model, I don't think it's reasonable or sustainable for a single person to take that on by themselves.

Rocks don't float by themselves. They're held up by other rocks.

Showing up for your community is supporting the supportive.

what does
showing
up
mean
to
you?
